

USEFUL BOOKS

“Native Plants of the Blue Mountains” by Margaret Baker & Robin Corringham, 1995, A Three Sisters Publication, PO Box 104, Winmalee, NSW 2777

“Field Guide to the Native Plants of Sydney” by Les Robinson, 1991, Kangaroo Press, NSW

“Bush Invaders of South-East Australia” 2001, by Adam Muyt, R.G. & F.J.Richardson, Victoria
(www.weedinfo.com.au/bk_main2.html)

“ Environmental Weeds- A Field Guide for SE Australia”, 2001, by Kate Blood, CRC for Weed Management Systems (www.weeds.crc.org.au/)

Bringing Back the Bush

Joan Bradley 1988

Available from CSIRO Publishing

Making Your Garden Bush Friendly

L. McLoughlin & J. Rawling 1995

Bush Regeneration, Recovering Australian Landscapes, 1989, Robin Buchanan , TAFE Student Learning Publications

Bush Regenerators' Handbook

National Trust 1991

A Hundred Hardy Natives for Blue Mountains Gardens

Jill Dark 1988

Birdscaping Your Garden

George Adams 1980, 1996

Flora & Fauna Study for Blue Mountains Environmental Management Plan, Peter Smith & Judy Smith, 1995 , available from Blue Mountains City Council
(There are 5 volumes of this publication specific to individual areas of the Blue Mountains LGA- look for the one applicable to your area)

Australian Native Plants – propagation, cultivation & use in landscaping, John W Wrigley & Murray Fagg , 1996, New Holland Publishers

Managing Biodiversity in Agricultural Ecosystems

From Columbia University Press comes a volume that includes recent research and development in the maintenance of local diversity at the genetic, species and ecosystem levels. This book looks at how farmers benefit from biodiversity in agricultural systems. For a brief description go to: www.columbia.edu/cu/cup/catalog/data/Ecology2008.pdf

Trees and Biodiversity– A guide for Australian farm Forestry, David Salt, David Lindenmayer and Richard Hobbs, 2004. Joint Venture Agroforestry Program, Rural industries research and development corporation www.rirdc.gov.au